

General Project Description:

RE&LS provided structural engineering services for the $20 million additions and alterations to the existing Cheektowaga CSD buildings. Project consisted of major additions to the existing Middle School and High School, including a new gymnasium. The design included a new two-story wing designed with 'PR' frames and composite construction.